PORTSMOUTH, Va., April 26.—Burns' wildness, coupled with misplays behind him, lost for the Truckers this afternoon what might otherwise have been a pretty well-earned victory. The first four innings of the game were the cleanest of any contest ever pulled off on the Portsmouth field, but after that the game was slow and draggy, with inexcusable errors at critical stages.

Titman and Lipe for the Champs, were the star hitters, while Smith and Titman were the stars in fielding for their team. Billett and Burns performed the best fielding stunts for the Truckers.

Neither side scored in the first inning, but the second resulted better for the Truckers. Schreder flew out to deep center. Townsend landed for a clean two-sacker. McCauley walked. Hannifan struck at the air three times in vain; Toner singled, scoring Townsend. Burns ended the scoring by flying out to right garden.

The Truckers again scored in the third. Maher led off with a neat sacrifice, and came home when Billett dropped a Texas Leaguer back of third station. Guheen sacrificed, but Schreder and Townsend both sent up flies to the outfield.

Richmond had not been able to get a man around the circuit until the fifth inning, when Lohr got a fly on Schreder's error, went to second on Lipe's single, was advanced a base when Kanzer put down a neat sacrifice, and both scored on Smith's single. Sandherr popped up a little one to Burns, and Smith was doubled at first.

Another was added in the sixth, when Titman singled. Ison's infield out sent him to second, and he took third on Messitt's out on a grounder along the first base line, later scoring on Toner's error.

Yellow Jackets Won.
HAMDEN, N.Y., April 26.—Costly errors at crucial periods lost the game to-day to Randolph-Macon by the score of 5 to 4. Up to the sixth the score stood 4 to 1 in favor of the home team, but in this inning a timely hit, coupled with two errors, gave Randolph-Macon two more runs.

Each side was blanked in the seventh, but in the eighth one hit, backed by three errors, allowed the visitors two more runs and making the score 5 to 4 in favor of the Yellow Jackets. The ninth was a blank for both sides. Bob Bernier, for the home team, and Smith, for the visitors, pitched excellent ball, the former particularly holding himself together in the face of the most discouraging situations.

The features of the game were spectacular catches of fly balls by Glette at second, Arbuckle in left field, and the pitching of Bernier. The weather was ideal, and there was perhaps present the largest crowd ever seen on the Venable Field.

Bingham Defeats A. and M.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 26.—In a slow and listless game, Bingham, of Asheville, defeated A. and M. College here to-day by the overwhelming score of 7 to 2. The farmers were unable to do anything with Anderson, Bingham's star twirler, their two runs in the eighth being due to errors and a wild throw, which allowed two men to score. Twelve of the farmers were rallied on strikes-out. Rows was in poor form, and after the second inning the Bingham boys had everything their way.

Richmond College Loses at Tennis.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ASHLAND, Va., April 26.—Randolph-Macon's tennis team this afternoon won three straight sets from Richmond College. The first game was won by R. M. C. 6, R. C. 1. The pair of Spiders were defeated by the superior play of the Yellow Jackets and their own inability to get together. Hill and Blum swung the packets for Richmond, while the Spiders were unable to get together. Hill and Blum acted as referees and Dr. J. M. Messick and Mr. Jones as line judges.

SPIDERS DEFEAT GALAUDET MUTES

Slow and Listless Game Funnishes Little Real Excitement for Small Crowd.

ST. LOUIS HAS MEN THROWN OUT AT PLATE IN TWO INNINGS.

Richmond College defeated the baseball team of mutes from Galaudet College, Washington, D. C., yesterday afternoon at Broad Street Park by a margin of 3 to 2. Although the score was close throughout, the game was rather slow and listless, and little real excitement was furnished the small crowd on hand.

The mutes outlast the Spiders and fielded slightly better. Two of their errors, however, let in runs, and were directly responsible for their defeat. In the third inning Birck dropped a beautiful throw home, allowing Sneed to score, and in the sixth Dillon made a wild throw to first, permitting Jenkins to score from second. The other run for the Spiders resulted from a hit batsman, a sacrifice hit and Gwathmey's single.

Dillon Pitched Good Game.
Dillon pitched a fine game for the mutes, allowing but five scattered hits, and striking out six men. He led both teams in the hitting, driving out three singles in four times up.

Clark, began the pitching for the Spiders, but the visitors took kindly to his shots, and after they had touched him for seven hits Gwathmey replaced him in the opening of the seventh. The latter pitched did well, allowing but one hit—a double by Arras—in the remaining three chapters.

The visitors scored their first run in the fourth on a hit by Sneed. Shoppard and landed at second when Beverly led the throw get by him. However advanced on an infield out, and scored from when Meredith made a running catch of Arras's foul fly to right.

Lodge and the other members of the local team called to Meredith to let the ball go, knowing that Howard would score. The last run for the mutes came in the sixth. Bell led off with a double to center, took third on an infield out, and scored when Ezekiel fumbled Craven's hot grounder to short.
